

Harrogate Folk Club in the early 1960s.

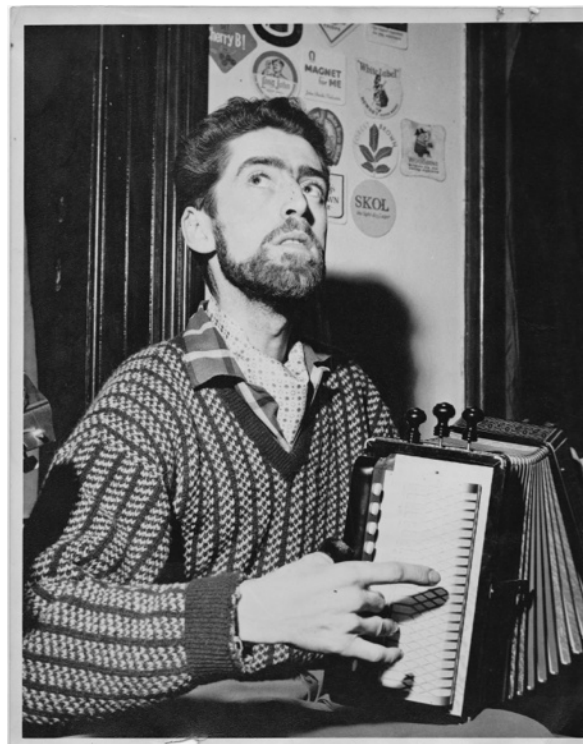

In the early days of the Harrogate Folk Club, held variously at The Empress and the West Park Hotel, the principal organisers were Ernie Green (died 2013) and Stuart Kind (died 2003). The photograph below is Ernie (on the right), his brother Geoff, and Geoff's wife Pauline. That might be Zeke Deighton behind, on guitar?

During this period the club had regulars including Zeke Deighton, Roger Knowles, and Robin & Barry Dransfield (the latter three being part of the Crimple Mountain Boys).

Ernie Green.

Dennis Ward, aka 'Dennis the Hairdresser'.
He had an upstairs shop on Station Bridge, Harrogate.

This photograph is marked up, 'The Harrogate Folk Four, 2nd Reunion, Oct 91.' From the left, Geoff Green, Laurie Hines, Stuart Kind, Ernie Green. The HFF 'won' at the Stockton Folk Festival in the early 1960s, I think on more than one occasion.

This photograph is not captioned, but it must be a different show (unless they changed stage kit ...) from the same era.
